Art Unit: 1745

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-19 and 21, drawn to a method for making a thin-film battery, classified in class 29, subclass 623.2.
  - II. Claim 20, drawn to a thin-film battery, classified in class 429, subclass 162.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the product as claimed could be made by another and materially different method such as without the use of the claimed masks of Group I.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their different classification and recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. During a telephone conversation with John Kusmiss on September 25, 2002 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of Group II, claim 20. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 1-19 and 21 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.
5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

7. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

In steps (f) and (g) of claim 20, the first and second electrodes are formed by exposing a part of both the anode and cathode layers to external circuitry. This is incorrect because, according to both the present specification and the drawings, it appears that the current collectors for both the anode and cathode layers are exposed to external circuitry. The anode and cathode layers themselves are not exposed.

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

9. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kwak et al. (Kwak).

Art Unit: 1745

Reference is made to Figure 3 of the patent to Kwak along with column 4, line 61 through column 7, line 7 of Kwak. Each of the elements a-g in claim 20 are taught in the above noted drawing and patent text of Kwak.

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

All of Bates et al, Hobson, Neudecker et al. and Yoon et al. set forth various thin-film batteries of interest.
